Essay Guidelines

Attach an essay of at least 500 words that will introduce you to your new university community. This should be your own work; you may write several drafts and use a dictionary. Check your work carefully before submitting the final essay. The university is interested in knowing as much as possible about you. The following are some suggested topics from which to choose.

- Explain why you want to take part in this program and attend a university in the USA.
- Describe your professional and educational goals.
- Describe how your interests, strengths and abilities will help you succeed in your chosen field and program.
